

Classroom Aide (Friday's only)

OVERVIEW

Are you looking for a fulfilling mission instead of a job? If you love Jesus and His Word, have a passion for teaching children, and desire to work in a joyful, purpose-driven environment, a teaching position at Heritage Classical Academy may be a wonderful fit for you.

We currently have an opening for a part-time Classroom Aide for the 2026–27 school year who desires to join a growing, learning, and vibrant Christ-centered classical school community. This role will support teachers across grades and provide targeted support to students as needed.

We are committed to the professional development of our teachers and seek to leverage their gifts to further our mission.

---

HIGHLIGHTS

- Beautiful church campus
- Small class sizes
- High expectations for student work and behavior
- Established curriculum with physical books
- Focus on teaching, not administration
- No emphasis on standardized testing
- Strong parent partnership
- Joyful Christian school culture

---

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

- Partner with teachers as needed to support students academically and spiritually
  - Foster a joyful, orderly, and respectful learning environment that supports the school's expectations for behavior
  - Communicate effectively with colleagues and administrators
  - Participate in faculty meetings, professional development, and school events as required
  - Perform additional tasks as needed
-

QUALIFICATIONS

Successful candidates will:

- Have a love for students, a passion for teaching, and embrace our school's Statement of Faith, Mission and Vision.
- Comfortable with change and willing to do what is needed
- Hold a Bachelor's degree or equivalent work experience. However, candidates with comparable work and/or life experience will be considered.
- Serve as a positive influence within the culture and community of the school and Stanly County.
- Maintain excellent time management, communication, and organizational skills.
- Possess a teachable spirit and be a life-long learner.

---

COMPENSATION

- Pay based on qualifications and experience

---

If you are ready to inspire young minds, teach with purpose, and grow in faith alongside students and colleagues, apply now and join our thriving community at Heritage Classical Academy.

Please email your resume and statement of interest to amy.phibbs@myheritageclassical.com.